Thanksgiving couldn't have been better, Pottstown reflected last night.

Church services were well attended, the football team won a championship, the weather was crisp and clear in the morning, and the roast turkey was crisp and tasty at noon.

And after a bountiful family dinner it was a perfect afternoon to sit around the house-perhaps to watch more football on television.

Flurries Predicted As Temperatures Take Sharp Dip

Thanksgiving Day dawned cold and clear, as the weatherman predicted, but some snow-flurries which he said might materialize are going to be a day late.

That's the forecast for today and the weekend, while the temperatures dipped to freezing in the early morning hours.

It was a grand day for football, if you like football, and many, many Pottstonians did. If they believed the weatherman, they brought blankets with them, too.

The light flurries are expected to begin tonight and possibly continue through until the middle of Saturday morning. Highest temperatures probably will be between 34 and 40 degrees. So, in case-you hadn't noticed, Winter has sort of crept upon the scene. The warping signs this year seem rather light in view of the past. The only real indication was that unexpected snowstorm on Nov. 6.

From here on in, though, watch your step. There will be more snow and more storms.

For a Cleaner Pottstown

A long step forward was taken the other day when Pottstown Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden announced the purchase of a street-cleaning machine.

The mechanical boon wets down the dust; sweeps it onto a continuous rubber belt, and deposits it within the confines of the trutlelike vehicle. -Mr. Gulden believes a driver can work a whole night long without making more than one trip to the borough dump with

The purchase climaxed a long series of conferences with borough officials, with complete accord among the members of Councilman Paul Marshall's highway committee, and other councilmen. The borough was able to make a good buy, getting practically a new machine for half the list price. Borough manager Gulden and Councilman Marshall are to be complimented for their ingenuity in putting across the purchase.

Pottstown has needed a street cleaner for years. Because of antiquated ideas, abetted by lack of manpower, few of Pottstown's streets EVER were cleaned, except by rains.

The borough in recent years did make a pretext of tidying the central part of the borough by using hand labor for sweeping. It was a slow process and a costly process. It was so slow that only portions of High prices, security—than they are over the her was a couple of street and Hanover street ever got cleaned. On the outskirts, civic-minded citizens in Government during the Roosevelt-swept their own portions of the streets, believe it or not. It wasn't unusual to see householders early in the morning sweep out flooding Capitol Hill, the White House their gutters, deposit the filth in garbage cans and newspaper correspondents. for final disposal. It wasn't unusual, either, to see dirt collect for years in some untidy Now Pottstown will be more cleanly and "clean up week" will be every week. Manager Gulden promises to sweep all paved streets at least once a week. He recognizes the difficulty there'll be on streets with deeply curved, brick gutters, but he said he would find a solution for those, too, All he asks is cooperation. When street before the 1954 election.

cleaning schedules are announced, all night automobile parkers will be asked to find new spots for their cars. The sweeper can't get under automobiles and it may be necessary to have a law passed permitting towing away of cars whose owners don't abide by the law.

There'll also be a little cooperation asked from High street merchants who today are prone to sweep out their stores, then their erally our most prosperous twelve sidewalks and finally brush the filth into the months, the peak has passed. We are in street. That not only is a filthy procedure, a sidewise slip - on a plateau - and, but there's a law against this and it's likely as always in such a swing, there are to be enforced.

Citizens who have been crying for cleaner streets now will get them—thanks to another forward step by our borough manager.

months or years. However, at the present time, there is a brighter outlook for the child suffering from this infection.

The fungus is a parasite affecting the skin of the scalp and eventually the hair. Once the fungus enters the scalo. it causes hair loss in small patches the size of half a dollar. Eventually, there is scaling and redness of the scalp where the loss of hair has occurred. The diagnosis of ringworm of the scalp is made by using a special light known as a Wood's lamp. This lamp causes a green fluorescence when shining on infected hair.

It is interesting to note that between 25 and 70 percent of the cases will recover by themselves within a three to 24 month period, even if treatment is not continued or even begun. However, all cases should, of course, he under the physician's care as soon as they are discovered.

For a Cleaner Pottstown

A long step forward was taken the other day when Pottstown Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden announced the purchase of a street-cleaning machine.

The mechanical boon wets down the dust; sweeps it onto a continuous rubber belt, and deposits it within the confines of the trutlelike vehicle. Mr. Gulden believes a driver can work a whole night long without making other excuses are dug up. more than one trip to the borough dump with

The purchase climaxed a long series of conferences with borough officials, with complete accord among the members of Councilman Paul Marshall's highway committee, and other councilmen. The borough was able to make a good buy, getting practically a new machine for half the list price.

Borough manager Gulden and Councilman Marshall are to be complimented for their ingenuity in putting across the purchase.

Pottstown has needed a street cleaner for years. Because of antiquated ideas, abetted by lack of manpower, few of Pottstown's streets EVER were cleaned, except by rains.

The borough in recent years did make a pretext of tidying the central part of the borough by using hand labor for sweeping. It was a slow process and a costly process. It was so slow that only portions of High street and Hanover street ever got cleaned.

On the outskirts, civic-minded citizens in Government during the Roosevelt- money, and she swept their own portions of the streets, believe it or not. It wasn't unusual to see householders early in the morning sweep out their gutters, deposit the filth in garbage cans and newspaper correspondents. for final disposal. It wasn't unusual, either, to see dirt collect for years in some untidy

Now Pottstown will be more cleanly and "clean up week" will be every week. Manager Gulden promises to sweep all paved streets at least once a week. He recognizes the difficulty there'll be on streets with deeply curved, brick gutters, but he said he would find a solution for those, too.

All he asks is cooperation. When street before the 1954 election. cleaning schedules are announced, all night automobile parkers will be asked to find new spots for their cars. The sweeper can't get under automobiles and it may be necessary to have a law passed permitting towing away of cars whose owners don't abide by the law.

There'll also be a little cooperation asked from High street merchants who today are prone to sweep out their stores, then their erally our most prosperous twelve sidewalks and finally brush the filth into the months, the peak has passed. We are in street. That not only is a filthy procedure, a sidewise slip - on a plateau - and, but there's a law against this and it's likely as always in such a swing, there are to be enforced.

Citizens who have been crying for cleaner streets now will get them-thanks to another forward step by our borough manager.

Precautions Needed

ing these few sensible suggestions.

1. Never leave children unsupervised in a car, even though it's "just for a minute." Never leave the motor running while parked. Take your keys with you. 2. Never start a car until you know -not just think, but know-that no children are in the way, front or back. 3. Don't allow children to stand up while riding. Teach them to sit still. 4. Don't allow babies to be carried on someone's lap in the front seat. Place babies in the rear seat, or in a baby 5. Make sure your car doors are locked so children can't open them accidentally. Teach children to leave door handles alone.

6. If children start quarreling, pull off the road and stop before trying to settle

7. Don't permit children to lean or reach from car windows.

8. Teach children not to touch steering wheel, gear-shift lever, rearview mirrow, or otherwise distract the driver while car is in motion.

The bomb, with a small charge of explosive, produced a small white mushroom-shaped cloud similar to the giant mushroom clouds made by real atomic blasts. It was planted in the ground-breaking site by D. R. Perkins, 1483 Sunset drive, Glory Fireworks' sales manager. It was set off this way: Fiveyear-old Miriam Penn-Gaskell Hall, direct descendant of William Penn waved a silvery, wand-like tube with small amounts of uranium and beryllium in it. The wand-waving set off a stream of neutrons, which iginited a feeble atomic reaction, which in turn generated electric current that set off Glory's * * *

HINT TO ALL NIGHT PARKERS -It's a smart idea to lock all your car doors when you park or even when you put your car away for the night. Car thieves are now putting a few drops of mercury into ignition locks and then sealing them with wads of gum. If the key rotates a cylinder, the mercury completes the electrical contact. If the car locks have tumblers, the stuff depresses the tumblers enough to turn the switch. Installation of a circuit breaker is an effective device to overcome the mercury treatment. A hidden horn attachment also scares some of the thieves away.

children, exiled from school and subjected to the indignity of wearing a cap over his head until the infection was cured, a procedure that might take months or years.

However, at the present time, there is a brighter outlook for the child suffering from this infection.

The fungus is a parasite affecting the skin of the scalp and eventually the hair. Once the fungus enters the scalp, it causes hair loss in small patches the size of half a dollar. Eventually, there is scaling and redness of the scalp where the loss of hair has occurred.

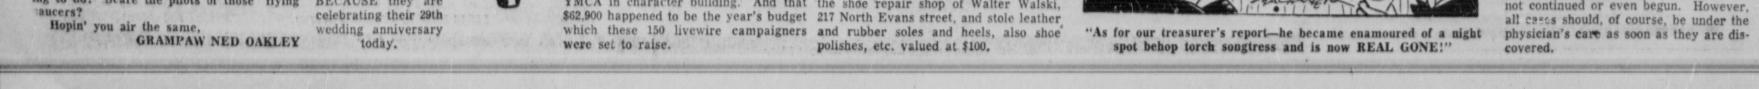

The diagnosis of ringworm of the scalp is made by using a special light known as a Wood's lamp. This lamp causes a green fluorescence when shining on infected hair. It is interesting to note that between

Trojans Beat Whippets for Ches-Mont Championship

Second Half Drive Led By Jim Kirk's Passing; 5 Share in Point Making

The Ches-Mont league championship was brought to Pottstown yesterday morning as the PHS Trojans went point-crazy in the second half to beat Downingtown High,

This is the first football league title the school has ever held. The Trojans succeed Berwin as the league champs.

More than 4000 fans were in the stands at Franklin field as the Trojans broke the game wide open with two touchdowns within 56 seconds in the third quarter. They went on to score another pair of six-points in the fourth quarter to wrap up their fourth league win. It was a great windup for Coach Heeb Meyers and his staff, Bill Mc-Cabe and Morrie Grigg. The players thought so too as they carried the coaches off the field on their

The team's record for the season is six wins, three losses and a tie. After losing their opening league match to Phoenixville, the Trojans improved with every game and defnitely reached their peak yesterday.

Downingtown wound up with a 4-5 record and 3-3 mark in the league. West Chester and Phoenixville tied for second place in the C-M loop with 4-2 slates.

There were heroes galore as five players took part in the score. But it was probably the quarterbacking and passing of Jim Kirk, a Senior, that turned the tide. Little Jim, an aerial wizard all season, completed six out of six passes, two for touchdowns.

MILT WENSEL, the 230-pound Junior end was on the receiving end of four tosses and it was he who tallied the first touchdown on a 39-yard pass from Kirk.

Tom Troutman kicked the point, and three plays later Pottstown had its second TD as Carl Burns rambled 21 yards.

The onslaught continued in the Perfect Ending last period as Kirk passed 14 yards for a touchdown to co-captain Flip Smoyer and then Howie Yergey Bedell topped the morning's activities with the longest run of Leveille. the day, 41 yards for a score.
